

privacy policy

We value your privacy and are committed to protecting your personal data. This policy explains how we handle the information you provide when visiting our website.

information we collect

We may collect basic information when you contact us through forms or email, such as your name, email address, and any details you choose to share. We do not collect sensitive personal data.

how we use your information

Your information is used solely for the purpose of responding to your inquiries, providing our services, and improving the website. We will never sell or rent your personal data to third parties.

data storage and security

We take appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your personal data from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. Data is stored only for as long as necessary to provide our services or comply with legal obligations.

your GDPR rights

If you are located in the European Union, you have the right to:

- Access the personal data we hold about you.
- Request correction or deletion of your data.
- Object to or restrict certain types of data processing.
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us at the email address provided below. We will respond within the time frame required by law.

cookie policy

what are cookies

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit a website. They help us improve the website experience and understand how visitors use our site.

how we use cookies

- essential cookies: Ensure the site functions properly.
- analytics cookies: Help us understand traffic and usage patterns (for example, through tools like Google Analytics).

managing cookies

You can adjust your browser settings to block or delete cookies at any time. Please note that disabling essential cookies may affect the functionality of the site.
